Please join 1913, a journal of forms, in celebrating the publication of its second issue where Bay Area contributors will read from their interdisciplinary work. Dedicated to printing the finest in contemporary poetry, art, poetics, and their intersections, 1913 numéro deux includes a chapbook by Brazilian poet Josely Vianna Baptista with original artwork by collaborator Francisco Faria, as well as a section of contemporary French poetry. Other contributors include Fanny Howe, John Taggart, John Yau, Sally Keith, Chet Weiner, Jen Hofer, Cort Day, and Lisa Robertson.
